Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France, dating back to 1895, when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors, Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one-timers, nearly 3,000 directors are cited here, including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary, including dates and places of birth and death; information on the individual's education and professional training; and other pertinent details, such as real names (when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym). The entries also provide complete filmographies, including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia, from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and René Clair_to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

A Cinematic Artist Kim Knowles, 2009 The American artist Man Ray was one of the most influential figures of the historical avant-garde, contributing significantly to the development of both Dadaism and Surrealism. Whilst his pioneering work in photography assured him international acclaim, his activity in other areas, notably film, is to this day both unknown and undervalued. During the 1920s Man Ray made four short experimental films and collaborated on a host of other projects with people such as Marcel Duchamp, Fernand Léger, René Clair and Hans Richter. These works, along with a series of cinematic essays and home movies made during the 1920s and 1930s, represent the most important contribution to the development of an alternative mode of filmmaking in the early twentieth century. This book explores Man Ray's cinematic interactions from the perspective of his interdisciplinary artistic sensibility, creating links between film, photography, painting, poetry, music, architecture, dance and sculpture. By exposing his preoccupation with form, and his ambiguous relationship with the politics and aesthetics of the Dada and Surrealist movements, the author paints an intimate and complex portrait of Man Ray the filmmaker.

À la rencontre du cinéma français Robert J. Berg, 2010 À la rencontre du cinéma français: analyse, genre, histoire is intended to serve as the core textbook in a wide variety of upper-level undergraduate and graduate French cinema courses. In contrast to content-, theme-, or issue-based approaches to film, Professor Berg stresses “the cinematically specific, the warp and fabric of the film itself, the stuff of which it is made.” Sufficient proficiency in French is the sole prerequisite: “No previous background in film studies is assumed, nor is any prior acquaintance with French cinema. It will help, of course, to like movies, and to have seen quite a few...” (from the preface).

Approche systémique des institutions de soins Thierry Alberne, Karine Alberne, 2020-10-06 L'institution est à la fois un système dans lequel tous les membres, qu'ils soient soignants ou patients, sont en interrelations, dépendant, les uns des autres, de l'organisation fonctionnelle et hiérarchique, ainsi que du lieu lui-même, mais également un cadre de soins pour les patients, qui peut être sécurisant ou, au contraire, contre-productif par rapport aux objectifs du soin. Troisième ouvrage du triptyque consacré aux thérapies systémiques (Les thérapies familiales systémiques et Applications en thérapie familiale systémique), cet ouvrage étend le champ d'application de la pensée systémique aux institutions de soins, plus particulièrement en psychiatrie et en santé mentale, associant, à la réflexion du questionnement systémique, la pratique des soignants de terrain ainsi que des dirigeants d'institutions, rappelant les concepts à l'origine de la systémie, par exemple comment le fonctionnement (ou dysfonctionnement) d'une structure de soins peut impacter la prise en charge des patients. L'ouvrage est illustré de nombreux exemples concrets de situations auxquelles peut se trouver confrontée une équipe au quotidien (que faire face à une personnalité qui perturbe et/ou remet en cause le fonctionnement de l'institution ? Comment construire un projet de soins collectif au sein d'une équipe ? Que peut apporter l'institution au patient en termes de soutien, de sécurité, de repères, etc. ?). Cet ouvrage s'adresse aux psychiatres, psychologues et psychothérapeutes, aux infirmiers et éducateurs, et plus largement aux professionnels exerçant dans le large champ de la santé mentale, qu'ils soient décideurs et responsables d'institutions ou de structures, personnels de terrain s'occupant de souffrance psychique au quotidien. Ils y trouveront des clés pour comprendre la pertinence de la pensée systémique dans les institutions où ils exercent, des illustrations de situations concrètes et vécues, ainsi que des exercices pratiques à réaliser seul et/ou en équipe.

André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker R. J. Cardullo, 2017-01-28 André Bazin (1918-58) is credited with almost single-handedly establishing the study of film as an accepted intellectual pursuit, as well as with being the spiritual father of the French New Wave. Among those who came under his tutelage were four who would go on to become the most renowned directors of the postwar French cinema: François Truffaut, Jean-Luc Godard, Jacques Rivette, and Claude Chabrol. Bazin can also be considered the principal instigator of the equally influential auteur theory: the idea that, since film is an art form, the director of a movie must be perceived as the chief creator of its unique cinematic style. André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker: American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s contains, for the first time in English in one volume, much if not all of Bazin's writings on American cinema: on directors such as Orson Welles, Charles Chaplin, Preston Sturges, Alfred Hitchcock, Howard Hawks, John Huston, Nicholas Ray, Erich von Stroheim, and Elia Kazan; and on films such as High Noon, Citizen Kane, Rear Window, Limelight, Scarface, Niagara, The Red Badge of Courage, Greed, and Sullivan's Travels. André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker: American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s also features a sizable scholarly apparatus, including a contextual introduction to Bazin's life and work, a complete bibliography of Bazin's writings on American cinema, and credits of the films discussed. This volume thus represents a major contribution to the still growing academic discipline of cinema studies, as well as a testament to the continuing influence of one of the world's pre-eminent critical thinkers.
