Masters of English Music (Classic Reprint) Charles Willeby, 2017-09-15 Excerpt from Masters of English Music The aim of this Series is to place on record the chief facts and incidents in the careers of the greatest living composers, and to sketch the respective tendencies and the distinguishing features of their work. It is intended to devote a volume to the musicians of each country, and, so far as practicable, to obtain all biographical data from the composers themselves. In the present volume this plan has been followed exclusively. The author wishes to acknowledge the assistance afforded him by Messrs. Novello, Howell, Boosey, and Cramer, in kindly providing him with the full scores, 6a, of the various works for purposes. A New English Music Tim Rayborn, 2016-04-27 The turn of the 20th century was a time of great change in Britain. The empire saw its global influence waning and its traditional social structures challenged. There was a growing weariness of industrialism and a desire to rediscover tradition and the roots of English heritage. A new interest in English folk song and dance inspired art music, which many believed was seeing a renaissance after a period of stagnation since the 18th century. This book focuses on the lives of seven composers--Ralph Vaughan Williams, Gustav Holst, Ernest Moeran, George Butterworth, Philip Heseltine (Peter Warlock), Gerald Finzi and Percy Grainger--whose work was influenced by folk songs and early music. Each chapter provides an historical background and tells the fascinating story of a musical life.

Art Song in the United States, 1759-1999 Judith E. Carman, William K. Gaeddert, Rita M. Resch, 2001 Originally created as a teaching tool, this bibliography has taken on a second life as a research tool for various facets of American art song, including, in this edition, both current and historical discography.
